MEMORANDUM FOR : O/DCI, All Offices

FROM : Administrative Officer, O/DCI

SUBJECT : Project Helpful, 9-10 May 1967

1. The Defense Intelligence Agency has invited CIA and the Joint Chiefs of Staff to another presentation of its "Project Helpful" on Tuesday and Wednesday, 9 and 10 May, at the Defense Intelligence School in Anacostia. CIA has been asked to send thirty-five officers. (The JCS quota in fifteen).

2. Project Helpful is a series of briefings for employees in grade GS-13 or higher whose Agency work would be enhanced by knowing generally how DIA carries out its responsibilities in the intelligence community. Included in the subject matter are the organization of DIA, its requirements for intelligence, the ways in which DIA acquires and processes military intelligence, and its responsibilities in the fields of mapping, science, and technology. It is expected that there will be a tour of the DIA Production Center.

3. Please advise this office by 14 April of the individuals within your office to be considered for attendance in this presentation.
